

Maine Troop Greeters Our Current Partners

Thank You For Your Continued Support...

Bangor International Airport

www.flybangor.com

Bangor International Airport has been a major partner with the Maine Troop Greeter organization since its inception. Bangor International Airport provides the Troop Greeter Room in the domestic terminal, staff and administrative support, free parking for greeters during the greetings and troop flight information. Our organization could not be what it is today without their partnership.

Call-EM-All

www.call-em-all.com

Call-Em-All supports the work of the Maine Troop Greeters program at Bangor International Airport. To help make their efforts more efficient, Call-Em-All decided to donate 10,000 call units in support of this program. Call-Em-All provides a simple and user friendly phone tree service. Their call blaster for non-profits will allow you to effortlessly send 1000's of messages within minutes. All online and just pennies per call!

Sam's Club

www.samsclub.com

Sam's Club of Bangor, Maine has been a strong and constant supporter of the Maine Troop Greeters and their mission since 2003 and Operation Iraqi Freedom. Through the years, Sam's Club has quietly donated hundreds of thousands of cookies for the troops arriving at Bangor International Airport. Whenever the stores of baked goods run low in the Troop Greeter Room, Sam's Club is there to fulfill that need.

U.S. Cellular

www.uscellular.com

U.S. Cellular has provided the Maine Troop Greeters with free cell phones since 2004. With more than 650,000 minutes used since the program began, U.S. Cellular has helped connect hundreds of thousands of military personnel with their family and friends. U.S. Cellular believes in connecting people. This is just one small way we can help people stay connected to the ones who matter most.

Verizon Wireless

www.verizonwireless.com

Verizon Wireless provides the Maine Troop Greeters with free cell phones for military personnel to use when traveling through the Bangor International Airport and recently donated $10,000 to the organization.

Wal-Mart

www.walmart.com

For the past few years, Wal-Mart has been a staunch supporter of the Maine Troop Greeters organization by providing thousands of dollars worth of paper products (plastic gloves for food handling, plastic bags, etc.) for the Troop Greeter Room at the airport. Their continued and quiet donations, on behalf of all our Troops are a constant reminder of the generosity of our local businesses and their dedication to the Troop Greeters mission.
